

mom CONGRESS™

Educational Provider
GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF CONTINUING STUDIES

CITRUS HEIGHTS MOM AND PTA PRESIDENT WINS TRIP TO WASHINGTON, D.C., TO REPRESENT CALIFORNIA AT PARENTING MAGAZINE'S MOM CONGRESS ON EDUCATION AND LEARNING CONFERENCE THIS MAY

LAURA TAYLOR TO JOIN PARENTING, U.S. SECRETARY OF EDUCATION ARNE DUNCAN, AND ONE OUTSTANDING MOM EDUCATION ADVOCATE FROM EVERY STATE AT GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY MAY 2-4

Citrus Heights, CA – March 30, 2010 – Parenting magazine today announced that Laura Taylor of Citrus Heights has been selected to represent California at the inaugural Mom Congress on Education and Learning Conference at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. this May 2nd through 4th. Mrs. Taylor was chosen for her outstanding contributions and dedication to improving local schools. A total of fifty-one moms, representing each state and the District of Columbia, have been selected by Parenting as Mom Congress delegates.

Each delegate was selected from applications submitted at Parenting.com, and will receive round-trip airfare, a two-night hotel stay, and the opportunity to connect with other moms from across the country to share success stories, challenges, and concerns as they work to improve our nation's schools.

"I am honored to represent the great state of California" says Taylor of her excitement to be a part of Mom Congress. "This congress presents a unique opportunity to work collaboratively with parents from across the US to effect a positive change in our children's education."

U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan is among the roster of education and advocacy leaders scheduled to address the mom education advocates at the Mom Congress Conference. On Monday, May 3rd, Secretary Duncan will speak to attendees about the crucial role that parents play in helping implement the national agenda for improving the country's school system and the educational opportunities available to our nation's children.

The Mom Congress delegates will work towards creating Parenting's "Lesson Plan for Change", a guide to help empower parents nationwide to get more involved in their children's education. Attendees will work with members of the Mom Congress advisory board, which includes leaders from the National PTA, the National Education Association, PBS, MomsRising, the George Lucas Educational Foundation and others. Faculty members from Georgetown University's School of Continuing Studies – the Mom Congress educational provider – will also lead sessions during the event, and will offer scholarships to 10 outstanding mom advocates per semester.

Driven by the ever-increasing role that parents play in advocating for positive change in the education system, Parenting magazine launched the Mom Congress initiative in March 2009 to celebrate and connect moms fighting for better schools. Each month, the School Years edition of Parenting gives readers the education news and resources they need to make a difference, and highlights one of 16,000+ Mom Congress members whose efforts have brought about positive change for students.

For more information, visit Parenting.com/momcongress.

Laura Taylor is the President of Lichen K-8 School PTA, a former Chair of the Citrus Heights Planning Commission (2008), a member of the San Juan Unified School District's Strategic Planning Team, a member of the Citrus Heights Chamber of Commerce and graduate of its Leadership Program, and served as a member of the Sacramento County Children and Families Commission Blue Ribbon Task Force on School Readiness.

###