

“A Legacy PTA” Awards

February 17, 1897 witnessed the birth of the National Congress of Mothers. The organizers were truly surprised when 2,000 people showed up to the first convocation. Every Parent Teacher Association chartered in the past 114 years continues to carry out the vision of our founding mothers to improve the life of every child.

Many units, councils and districts in California have been advocating for children as a PTA for 50 years or more. We recognize each association reaching a longevity milestone as “A Legacy PTA.” Units and councils reaching their 100th year will be recognized on stage at the Fifth General Meeting.

Congratulations to each of these units and councils for your long service to the children and families of California!
