

May 2009

California students recognized in the National PTA Reflections program

There were 500,100 entries in the National PTA Reflections program. Among the winners were many students from California.

Two Outstanding Interpretation Awards

These students received invitations to attend the National PTA Convention, along with winning an $800 Arts Education Award, a Gold plated Medallion. In addition, the students' schools receive $200 to use towards their arts program.

Kate Huh, literature, senior division, Fourth District PTA

Alice Yang, visual arts, middle-junior division, First District PTA.

Six Awards of Excellence

These students were each awarded a silver medallion plus a $200 check.

Kent "Marshall" Schaffer, dance, intermediate division, Thirty-First District PTA

Sofie Verweyen, film, primary division, Tenth District PTA

Gillian Lau, film, senior division, Fourth District PTA

Lucas Fellows, literature, primary division, Fourth District PTA

Tyler Nguyen, literature, middle-junior division, Sixth District PTA

Alex Rosen, music, senior division, First District PTA

Four Awards of Merit

These students receive a silver medallion from the National PTA.

Jeffrey Hinkle, literature, intermediate division, Twelfth District PTA

Andrew Austin, photography, middle-junior division, Twelfth District PTA

Kacey Kim, visual arts, primary division, Tenth District PTA

Austin Lillywhite, visual arts, senior division, Third District PTA